2019 ALOXE-CORTON 1^{er} Cru Les Fournières

#25 Top 100 Cellar Selections 2022

Rating : 95

Hints of fur, candied cherries and rose petals perfume this fruity yet complex wine. The palate is weighty and rich, packed with flavors of brandied black cherries and plum preserves. A scintillating spine of acidity and earthen tea tannin lingers on the finish. This structured wine is best approached from 2025. It should improve well past 2035.

Deeply sanguine in color, with intense umami and spice upon entry, the front palate experiences deep red cherries, blood orange and fresh rose bloom. The palate is abundant with red fruit, including apple, cherry, pomegranate and rhubarb. Elegance and balance define this wine.

Corton Clos du Roy Grand Cru 2020 : 96 points

A powerfully intense wine with a core of rose framed by button mushroom and saffron awakens the senses. The palate is bright with red apple, fresh cherry and green peppercorn, leading to a soft bed of coriander and clove. Fresh acidity balances flavor intensity, with complexity leaving room for intrigue.

Charmes-Chambertin Grand Cru 2020 : 96 points

Complex, savory aromas greet the nose, with shiitake mushroom upon newly rained-on soil, tarragon and soy. A layer of dark-fruit follows and crescendos with red-fruit intensity on the palate intertwined with iodine, kelp and black pepper. Compelling upon first sip and will grow in complexity with time in bottle. Best after 2028.

Aloxe-Corton Premier Cru Les Fournières 2020 : 95 points

Deep dark ruby in color, the wine presents fresh under ripe rhubarb, black cherry, cassis, fresh mint and black peppercorn to the nose. The palate is concentrated and focused, with blackberries and tart fruit cradled by the minerality of finely crushed stone. A well-balanced wine, its youthful plush tannins are wrangled by spritely acidity.

Puligny-Montrachet Premier Cru Les Pucelles 2020 : 95 points

Compelling aromatics of fresh pears enveloped in wild mint, white tea leaves, Indian spices and salinity on the nose. The palate is textured, with generous acidity that carries the flavors to a gentle stone finish. Approachable in its youth.

Volnay Clos De Chênes Premier Cru 2020 : 94 points

Richly intense high tones of fresh cranberries, rhubarb and peppercorn contribute to a voluminous nose of overripe strawberries and freshly picked cherries. The palate is round and textured with ripe cherries, quince, limestone and salt, which leisurely integrate along its long finish. Cellar through 2028.

Gevrey-Chambertin La Justice 2020 : 93 points

Ripe blackberries and fresh cherries infused with hints of thyme tantalize the nose. The palate is embraced by succulent blackberries, accented by fresh white pepper and subtle spice. An utterly delightful wine to enjoy with dishes with umami elements, such as black truffle.
